Nibiru, Destroyer of Earth

When will be our last day on Earth?

Imagine a world without electricity or fresh water, rusted cars smashed together on concrete-riddled cracked streets. It is permanently nighttime as the radioactive dust hangs pallid in the grey sky. No rays from the sun, no breathable air, no hope. This is our probable future as the US industrial military complex creates ever more powerful and deadly weapons in order to destroy humanity. Yet with all their military might just what is it they are scared of?

With the aid of extraterrestrials the US shadow Government now possesses technology that far outstrips that of any in history. For full details peruse the following books by this author: Anunnaki Rulers, Hidden Truth, Humans Are Aliens and Prison Planet Earth.

As the last defenders of freedom, Turkey and Russia, desperately attempt to keep pace with the alien weapons manufacturing of the Western superpower almost without mention an invisible brown dwarf star system plummets towards Earth.

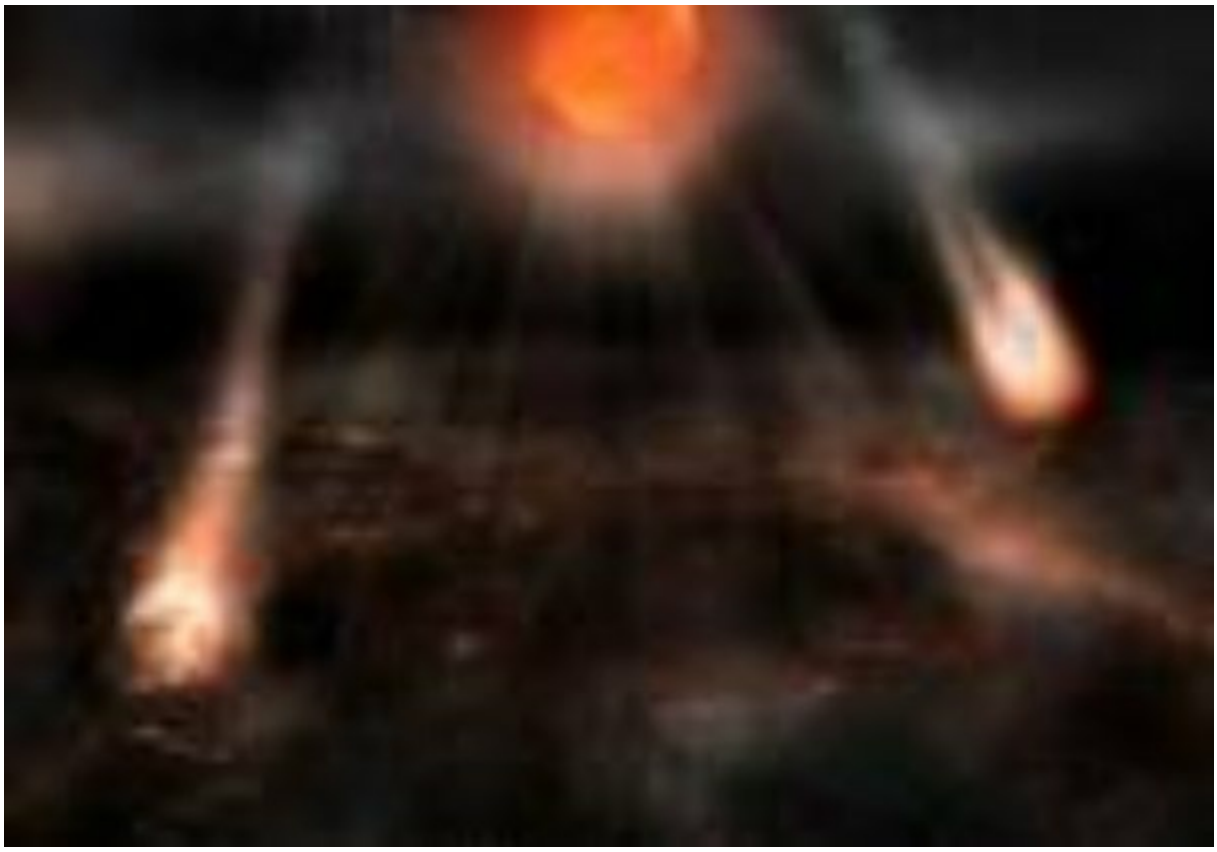
The statements above rival a science fiction movie yet all are absolutely true.

Our future was foretold to us two thousand years ago in the Holy Books. Today the portents of doom are now all present. Four blood moons in 2014-2015. Rivers running red. Sea creatures dying in their millions. The apocalypse is nigh and Armageddon is imminent. We are in the End Times.

More people than ever before are anticipating the demise of our civilisation. Is this the end of humankind on planet Earth?

The Mayan Calendar foretold that the End Times would occur in 2012 but that forecast did not transpire. People of the world breathed a sigh of relief yet the Mayan prophecy was completely misinterpreted. This highly advanced civilisation foretold that 2012 would be the beginning of the End Days.



Dawning of a New Age

In 2012 we entered the Age of Aquarius after living in the Piscean Age for over 2000 years. The Age of Pisces ‘coincidentally’ began around the time of the birth of Esau (Jesus Christ). What is the significance of the constellations and the cosmic Zodiac? Surely horoscopes are merely trite comments in magazines.

Why were the skies and in particular the zodiac so important to the ancients? Not only the Maya but the Inca, Chinese, Sumerian, Babylonian and Egyptian civilizations were all obsessed with the Great Year.

The term Great Year may be defined as:
"The period of one complete cycle of the equinoxes around the ecliptic (some 25,800 years). It is also known as the Platonic Year.

Plato defined his "perfect year" as the return of the celestial bodies and the diurnal rotation of the fixed stars to an original position

One complete cycle of the equinoxes equals a complete cycle of axial precession as we shall see later. The ancients subdivided the Great Year into twelve sections, one for each of the signs of the Zodiac. However, we do not progress but regress through these star constellations as will be explained later. Each Age lasts approximately 2,150 years

According to astrological mysticism there shall be unusual harmony and understanding in the world during the Age of Aquarius. Those who follow this belief system see it as a turning point in human consciousness whereby balance is restored as we move beyond the physical body. However there are others who foretell an end to all we hold dear.

Why do the Western Governments fail to restore the buoyant economy that Europe and the USA once enjoyed? Indeed why has the US administration stolen 12 trillion dollars from taxpayers to finance the building of deep subterranean cities?

Whilst half a billion people around the world roam scrap heaps for stale food and over eight million are in fear for their lives the US Industrial Military Complex stockpiles futuristic weaponry. Already Blair, Bushes, Clintons & Obama are responsible for the deaths of over nine million Iraqis, Libyans, Palestinians, Syrians, Pakistanis and Afghans. Why so much senseless slaughter?

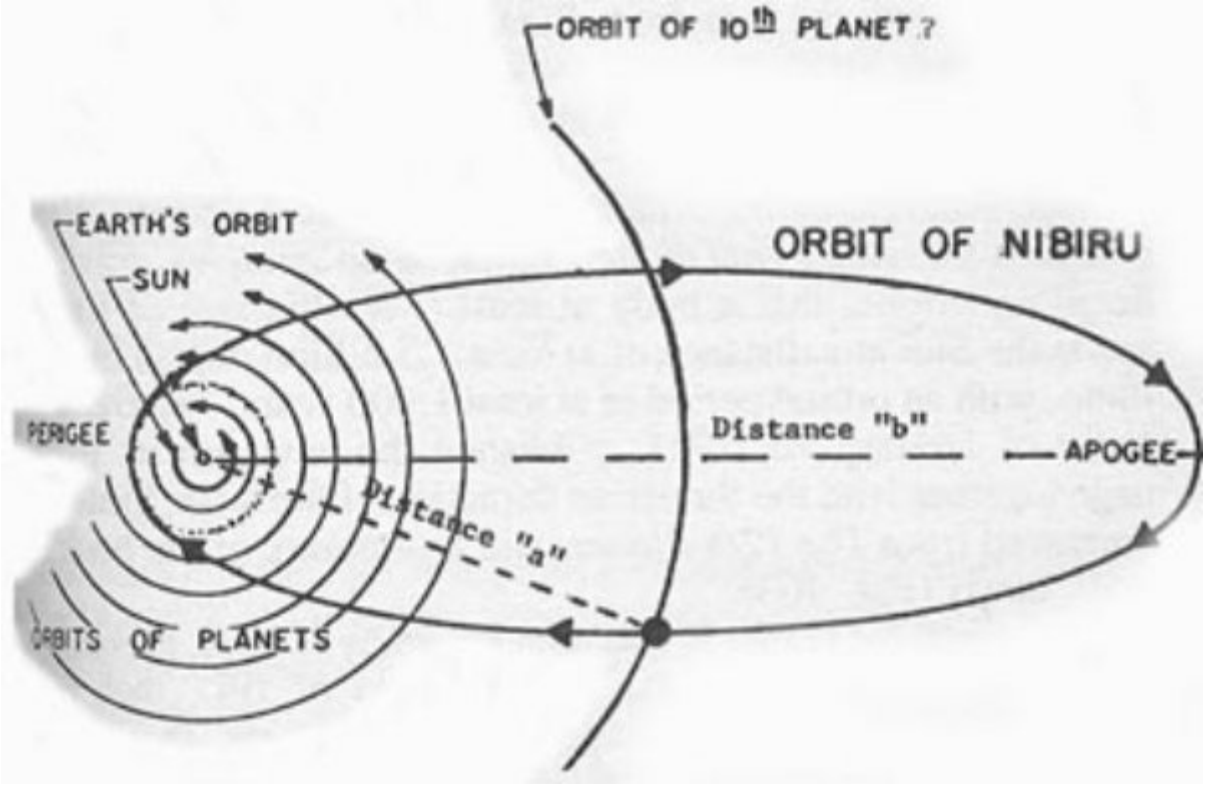
Perhaps the most eminent personality with tremendous knowledge of our forthcoming doom was Zecharia Sitchin who sadly passed away October 9th, 2010. He published several books on the subject of a rogue planet he termed Nibiru. Astrologers know Nibiru as planet X.

Sitchin referred to planet X as Nibiru because his translations of Sumerian cuneiform mentioned this planet by name. It was deemed to be the home planet of a race of giants known as the Anunnaki. Read my series on the Anunnaki (including Anunnaki Legacy) for full details. Sumerian literature states that Nibiru is a distant planet that nevertheless is part of our own solar system.

Every 3600 years or so Nibiru comes hurtling towards our sun. As it reaches its perihelion Nibiru accelerates to escape the gravitational pull of our sun. If this is true then Nibiru shall wreak havoc throughout the solar system as it assumes its escape velocity.



Evidence suggests that Nibiru has indeed created severe cataclysmic destruction many times in the past. On each such occasion the occupants of planet Earth have all but perished. Civilization as we know it ceased immediately. A gradual resumption of some semblance of organisation then took hundreds if not thousands of years to reassert itself.

Past disasters related to the rogue planet may have signalled the demise of such great civilizations as Lemuria and Atlantis. Certainly the near approach of a planetary body fourteen to sixteen times the size of Earth would account for the Great Deluge of 10500 BC. When Noah and his family were safe in their 'ark' tidal waves rocketed around the planet, removing all life in their path. In my book Continent of Atlantis I detail the rise and demise of both Lemuria and Atlantis.

For the real truth regarding Noah, the genetic manipulation of the human race by giants and the reason we have always been enslaved read my books Arrival of the Anunnaki and Prison Planet Earth.

The untimely death of Dr. Robert S. Harrington

NASA astronomer Dr. Robert Harrington was just one of a number of officials who warned the US administration of the threat of Nibiru. As early as 1988 his calculations showed that 'something' was orbiting at the very edge of our solar system. He suggested that Pluto was in fact a moon of Neptune that had been dislodged from its orbit by the gravitational pull of another planet far greater in size than Neptune. That planet, he suggested, is coming our way.

He further suggested that the orbit of Triton (the largest of Neptune's 13 moons) is retrograde precisely because it was affected by the mysterious planet X. Triton actually spins in the opposite direction to Neptune and its other moons. There are further aberrations in the far reaches of our solar system as we shall see later.

During a meeting of the American Astronomical Society at Arlington, Virginia Dr. Harrington stated that the Southern skies were being scoured for planet X. He further stated that a team must be sent immediately to the South Pole to substantiate his claim that Nibiru was indeed heading our way. This was as far back as January 16th 1990. Research stations and observatories have indeed been constructed in Antarctica.

One famous naval explorer who braved the freezing weather of both North and South poles was Admiral Byrd. Sworn to secrecy after his Antarctic defeat by Nazi UFOs Byrd nevertheless kept a diary of his adventures.

To learn the startling truth about beings who live in the bowels of Earth and the space age technology of the Third Reich read my books Aliens, Nazis and Hollow Earth and Mars Colony and Moon Bases.

If Harrington's findings are correct he estimates planet X to be four times the size of Jupiter. This is sixteen times bigger than our planet. Even a close encounter with Nibiru would create earthquakes and volcanic activity on an unprecedented scale. As a matter of fact is Earth not already experiencing a multitude of earthquakes, tsunami and rather odd weather conditions?

Why haven't our Governments warned us of this impending disaster?

In 1991 Harrington attended the Black Birch U.S. Naval Observatory in New Zealand. He stated in his report that Nibiru was calculated to be approaching from below the ecliptic at an angle of 40 degrees. The planet's orbit is tilted 30 degrees away from the ecliptic, the main plane of the solar system. At that time Nibiru was billions of miles from the sun but travelling at a speed of 30,000 miles per hour.

Shortly after this Harrington was diagnosed with oesophageal cancer and was too ill to continue his good work. Coincidentally many scientists have developed the same condition and even more have ‘committed suicide’ or perished in plane crashes. All of them were in possession of highly classified information.

The Pioneer 10 space craft was launched on March 3, 1972, by an Atlas-Centaur expendable vehicle from Cape Canaveral. It was the first ever probe to traverse the asteroid belt between Jupiter and Mars. This was between July 15, 1972 and February 15, 1973.

On November 6, 1973 the probe sent back photographs of Jupiter. It was 25,000,000 km away. Over 500 images were transmitted.

The closest approach to Jupiter was on December 4, 1973 - 132,252 km away. On-board instruments were used to study the asteroid belt, the environment around Jupiter, solar wind and cosmic rays. Then mysteriously on January 23, 2003 all communication with Pioneer 10 was allegedly lost. No more information was ever released by NASA.

Recently leaked documents indicate that telemetry from the Pioneer 10 craft positively identified the existence of not only a brown dwarf star but at least two orbiting planets approaching the planet Jupiter. Strange there was no mention of this by NASA scientists.

NASA is wholly owned by powerful conglomerates. Using public money from a host of countries the purpose of the space agency is threefold. In no way does NASA have the public interest at heart.

- Colonising and supplying the Martian cities
- Creating warp drive vehicles that will carry only billionaires to safety
- Mining Helium 3 on the moon

Yes I did say colonizing Mars and mining the moon for Helium 3. Read Mars Colony and Moon Bases.

Helium 3 is specifically used for nuclear fusion. Gone are the days of wasteful rocket propulsion. The covert elite employ NASA scientists to prepare antigravity craft for their delectation.

An amazing number of observatories have been established both on and off planet in the last twenty years. Paid for with taxpayer donations are they idly searching for a new constellation or two or is there a more sinister purpose?

One of the Vatican observatories is aptly named Lucifer.

Nasa is plotting the return of our twin ‘sun’ and its orbiting planets. Observatories around and above our planet are scanning the heavens for extremely important data regarding the Red Planet that creates cosmic havoc every 3600 years as it plunges through our Solar System.

Nibiru was named the Red Planet in ancient times as it appeared with red wings on those occasions when it was visible to the naked eye. Of course by then it was extremely close to our endangered planet. Panic ensued. Once seen at or before dawn in the Southern Hemisphere Nibiru is now clearly visible at the same time of day in the North.

The Industrial Military Complex has bled the USA dry to fashion a vast underground complex that stretches from the West to the East coast. When the expected cataclysm occurs the elite will live in this incredible complex whilst the remaining billions perish. Perhaps this is the message sent loud and clear on the Georgia Guidestones.

Of course this is the reason for all of the ancient ‘observatories’ from Stonehenge to Macchu Picchu. They were created by our ancient ‘ancestors’ to plot the Precession of the Equinoxes and predict the return of our binary star system.

Natural disasters occur in cycles and these cycles correspond to the reappearance of the system we know as Nibiru as detailed in the ancient Sumerian Scriptures. I have written extensively on this subject. Please read my series of books especially Arrival of the Anunnaki.

Mayan Measurement of Vast Periods of Time

The combination of the Tzolkin and Haab measurements of time provides an accurate date from ‘day 0’. On this auspicious day the Mayans thought the Earth was created. These calendars create the Calendar Round when aligned with the Sacred Round and Vague Year. This is achieved by two wheels rotating in opposite directions. The implication here is that the totality of time is finite and therefore the end and beginning of time are measurable.

By an amazing coincidence the Sanskrit Vedas and ancient Hindi scripts agree with the Mayans. They separate time into four yugas spanning millions of years.

Spiritual Truth, Divine Knowledge and advice on how you can escape the Eternal Cycle of life and death are detailed in my series of books The Glory of God.

Satya-yuga is an immense period of time (1 million 728 thousand years). During this 'Golden Age' or period of purity souls incarnate into light bodies to play roles in the physical.

Some enjoy life on planet Earth others on planets and star systems throughout many universes. The incarnations are known as Avatars and many heroes were named: such as Brahma, Vishnu and the anti hero Kali.

During the Satya-yuga all incarnated beings retain complete memory of who they really are and where they permanently reside. Please read my books Our Universe is an Illusion.

These incarnated Souls have fun creating all things, including plants and animals and sculpting land masses. They are fully developed spiritually, if a little bored with ‘sitting in Heaven’. They have all kinds of mystical abilities and remarkable powers. They have the ability to travel through the air, in fact to leave the physical body at will, and be anywhere in any universe in an instant. Therefore they have no need for flying machines.

The Nazi swastika (which was originally the Aryan symbol) defines four distinct regions. The first is Satya-yuga. The second, Treta-yuga, spans 1 million 296 thousand years.
Treta-yuga may be defined as the period when there was a 25% decrease in energy and abilities from Satya-yuga.

During Treta-yuga the ability of memory retention and free thought is reduced and the principle of all-knowing and spiritual understanding become to an extent fragmented. This is when the ability to fly through the sky by one's own power was lost. This lessening of the fine energies is due to entropy in the physical realm.

The third age Dvapara-yuga lasts 864 thousand years.

We are currently 12,000 years into the lowest, densest, cruellest age known as Kali-yuga. It lasts a total of 432 thousand years.

Thankfully at the end of Kali-yuga, the age of Satya-yuga begins again. The yugas then continue through another cycle. One thousand such cycles is one day of Brahma. The process is infinite. Of course with our 'superior intellect' we dismiss the prospect that there were highly advanced spiritual Souls incarnating ‘for fun’ millions of years ago. Too crazy to consider.

Maya measurements of time are as follows:

- Kin = 1 Day.
- Uinal = 20 kin = 20 days.
- Tun = 18 uinal = 360 days.
- Katun = 20 tun = 360 uinal = 7,200 days.
- Baktun = 20 katun = 400 tun = 7,200 uinal = 144,000 days.

The Long Count is 13 baktun cycles from date 0. This is 1.872.000 days after 0.0.0.0.0.

In total this is 5125.36 years. Mayans called this the “Great Cycle” of the Long Count.

For the Maya the calendar round cycle takes approximately 52 years to complete.

The Maya totality of time is 63,081,429 solar years. This is far less than the sum total of the four yugas. However the most important point here is that both civilizations felt the need to measure enormous amounts of time with accuracy. We cannot do this today.

Both societies agree that time is cyclical. In other words when the vast period of four yugas comes to an end it then repeats. This is referred to as the breath of Brahma. Perhaps humans have devolved not evolved since the days of such creative civilizations.

Scientists change their minds

For many years it was widely accepted that our solar system contained nine planets. When Pluto exhibited erratic behaviour cosmologists preferred to downgrade it rather than have ‘future egg on their faces’. Pluto is now considered to be a satellite of Neptune. It may be in the past it orbited another star that is the twin of our sun. Yes science now hypothesises we live in a binary system.

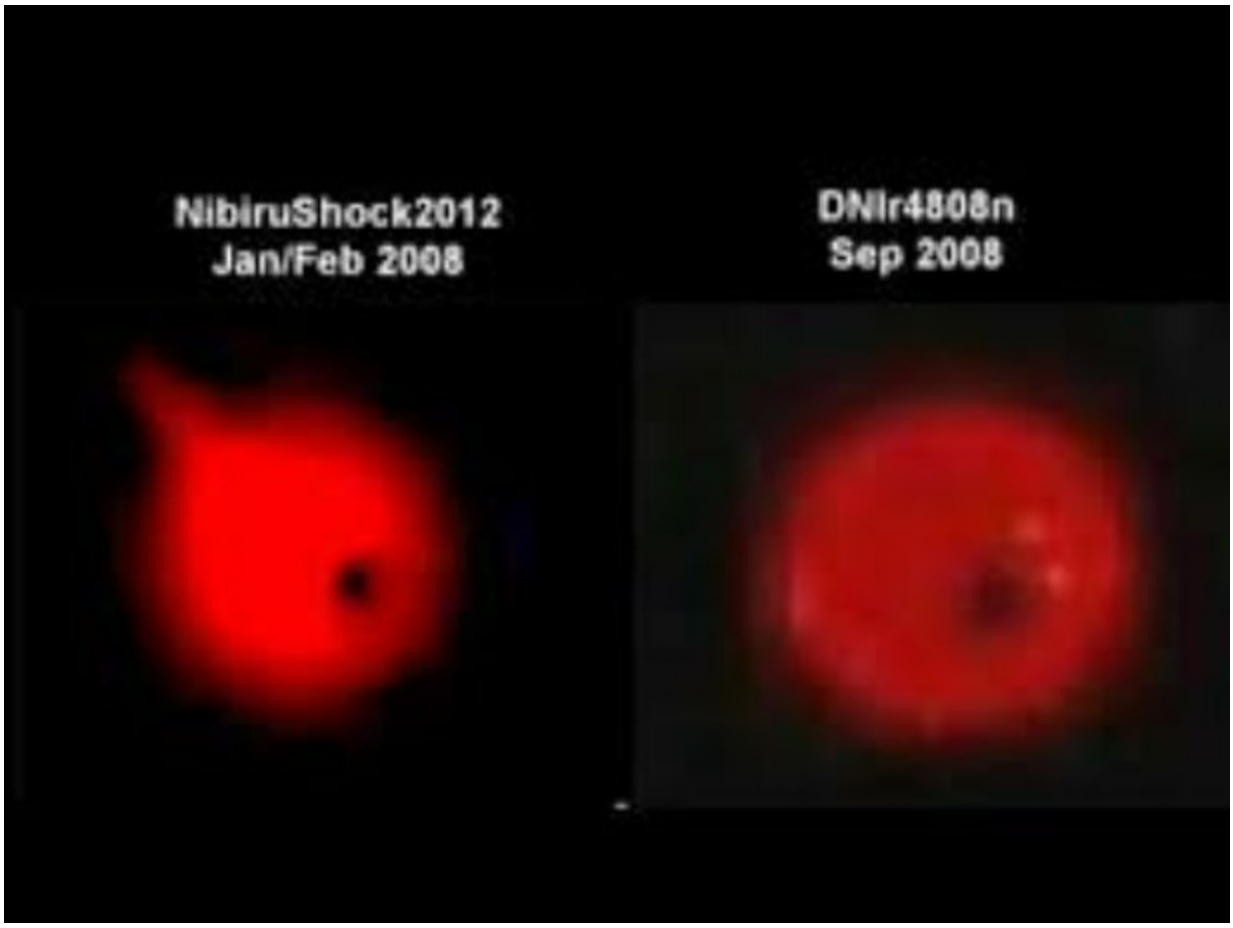
The twin star has been called Planet X, Wormwood and Nibiru. For a complete account and history of our enslavement by the Anunnaki read my book Anunnaki Rulers.

Suffice it to say astrophysicists have proven there is a second star that is our sun's twin. Of course the two stars cannot be close to each other. We would need Factor 1000000 suntan.

The two stars orbit in a figure of eight pattern (serpent-like as I shall explain later). Every 3600 years or so they reach their perihelion (closest distance to each other).

Quote from space.com, August 26th 2013:

"Nemesis (Nibiru) is a theoretical dwarf star thought to be a companion to our sun. The theory was postulated to explain a perceived cycle of mass extinctions in Earth's history. Scientists speculated that such a star could affect the orbit of objects in the far outer solar system, sending them on a collision course with Earth".



Nibiru, Nemesis, Planet X, Wormwood is thought to be a brown dwarf. It is the sun's companion. There is strong evidence to show that when the two stars approach each other it may spell trouble for our planet. Anyone remember the Great Flood?

When the twin stars approach each other a cosmic cataclysm is extremely probable. The gravitational pull of two stars in our solar system is sufficient to affect the orbits of the planets. But we don't care about the other planets, only Earth.

Let us call a 3600 year period a SAR. The Sumerians did. They spent long periods observing the ‘heavens’ searching for the return of Nibiru. Sumerians were told that their gods had originated from Nibiru. Who told them? The gods themselves. Which brings me smartly to Anu.

Anu was the boss. He ruled from Nibiru and visited Earth (Ki to Sumerians) every 3600 years or so. His eldest sons were given our planet as a present. İn return they gave Anu and his spouse Antu all the gold they could carry in a big space basket. No really that is why the ‘gods’ spent so much time on Ki. They were raping our planet.

Enki (real name Ea) was granted rulership of all that lay beneath the ground and the oceans. His younger brother Enlil ruled the air, airways (radio transmission) and the land. Despite Enki being older Enlil was heir to the throne of Nibiru. The Anunnaki live for thousands of years. Impossible you say?

and quote from http://www.harunyahya.com/en/Articles/39828/the-relativity-of-time-has

The Passage of Time Changes According to the Effect of Gravity:

The position of a body influences time. According to Einstein's theory of relativity, time slows down under the effect of gravity. Accordingly, the passengers on a plane flying somewhere with lower gravity will age by a few extra nanoseconds on every trip. The renowned physicist Stephen Hawking describes this using the example of twins:

"Consider a pair of twins. Suppose that one twin goes to live on top of a mountain while the other stays at sea level. The first twin would age faster than the second. Thus, if they met again, one would be older than the other." (Stephen Hawking, A Brief History of Time, p.54)

Einstein and Hawking's theory that that time passes more slowly near centers of gravity has been proved by experiments conducted by American scientists. A rocket at high altitude and two separate sites with different gravitational fields were selected for the first experiment. Two very sensitive atomic clocks, capable of measuring atomic vibrations were installed in these two locations, which had different gravitational fields because of their different altitudes, and the relative nature of time was confirmed. The scope of the experiment has today been increased and relativity has been observed in daily life. Two atomic clocks hundreds of times more sensitive than the original ones were used for this experiment. But it was not the two sensitive atomic clocks that distinguished this experiment from the earlier one. The difference in elevation between the two clocks was a mere 33 cm.

According to the results of the experiment, published in the American magazine Science on 24 September, being 33 cm higher, in other words two steps higher, causes time to pass faster because pressure is slightly reduced, and someone standing above these two steps ages slightly faster. However, since Almighty Allah has not created this phenomenon in such a way as to eliminate the need for free will, the difference is only one 90 billionth of a second in a life span of 97 years, and is therefore imperceptible to anyone.

The conclusion from these scientific findings summarized very briefly here is that the fact that time is a perception has once again been confirmed. This fact was also revealed hundreds of years ago in the Qur'an. The relevant verses read:

" ... A day with your Lord is equivalent to a thousand years in the way you count." (Surat al-Hajj, 47)

"He directs the whole affair from heaven to earth. Then it will again ascend to Him on a Day whose length is a thousand years by the way you measure." (Surat as-Sajda)

"The angels and the Spirit ascend to Him in a day whose length is fifty thousand years." (Surat al-Ma'arij, 4)

The Velocity of an Object Affects the Passage of Time:

Time passes faster or slower depending on the velocity of an object and its position (proximity to center of gravity). The more an object accelerates (in proximity to the center of gravity), the slower the effect of time on it. In other words, time contracts as velocity increases; it passes more slowly, as if approaching a "stop" point. We can clarify this with another example from Einstein. One of two twins of the same age stays on Earth while the other sets off on a space voyage at a speed approaching that of light. When the person who goes into space returns, his twin will be older than he is. The reason is that time passes more slowly for the twin who travels at high speed in space. This conclusion that Einstein arrived at in the 1900s has been confirmed by a NASA-supported project.

NASA confirmed Einstein's claim that large object such as the Earth bend time and space as they revolve around their own axes by taking measurements using two satellites orbiting the Earth. At the end of the study, the measurements performed showed an annual 2-meter deviation in the direction of the Earth's movement of the satellites' orbit around it. In other words, the satellites were being propelled 2 meters outward off their orbits. This is in 99% agreement with Einstein's calculations regarding the interface of time and space.

The varying effect of an object's velocity on the passage of time revealed by the NASA satellites has also been determined in daily life by NASA researchers. It appears that when one travels faster than 32 km an hour, time passes more slowly.

ANUNNAKI LIFE SPAN DNA ACTIVATED IN LITTLE GIRL

Scientists are hoping to gain new insights into the mysteries of ageing by sequencing the genome of a 17 year old girl who has the body of a toddler. Brooke Greenberg weighs 16lb and stands 30 inches from the floor. Her failure to develop resulted in medical staff examining her DNA. It may be that far from having defects in her genes they possess qualities that cause her to age more slowly. Early studies show that she does not have the genes that make the remainder of humanity age so quickly.

Currently Brooke's 'condition' is being monitored by staff at the University of South Florida School of Medicine. Below is a quote from Dr Richard Walker:

"The implication is that ageing is controlled by a relatively small number of genes and we might be able to target these with new therapies that would then improve the quality and length of human life"

Is it conceivable that some 300,000 years ago the Anunnaki scientists placed in our genes a faster ageing process so that their slaves would perish within thirty to fifty years? If human beings had been allowed to live for thousands of years we would learn only too quickly our position of servitude. Rebellion would be a problem for our masters especially as our numbers increased. The process of 'dumbing down' the human race continues to this day, especially in the form of organised religion and modern educational processes.

Only the few elite are privy to the real Truth and occult secrets as I have pointed out in many of my books. Read especially Sacred Symbols and Occult Design.

We shall return to the present day after the following evidence from the Epic of Creation, written on clay tablets more than seven thousand years ago.

Tiamat was originally the third planet from our sun. Fifteen billion years ago the Earth did not exist. Here Marduk, Wormwood or Nibiru is reference to the Sun's twin star and its orbiting planetary system:

As Tiamat opened her mouth to its full extent,
He (Marduk) drove in the evil wind.
The terrible winds filled her belly, her courage was taken from her and her mouth she opened wide. He seized the spear and burst her belly. He severed her inward parts, he pierced her heart. He overcame her and cut off her life. He cast down her body and stood upon it.

When he had slain Tiamat her host was scattered…..
Kingu was exalted over all other warriors.

The reason Nibiru is referenced as Marduk is that he (Marduk) was granted rulership of our planet in the Age of Aries. During this period he altered vast amounts of information to include himself as the conquering hero. All is revealed in Arrival of the Anunnaki.

I have no intention of boring you with the enormously long Enuma Elish. Suffice it to say Tiamat was battered by the brown dwarf star system racing around our Sun as it accelerated to break free of our sun's gravitational pull. In the process 'Nibiru' dragged its own planetary system in its wake as well as comets, electrical discharge, storms, etc

This cosmic cataclysm occurred around fourteen billion years ago.

Tiamat was struck by seven heavenly bodies. It was ripped asunder (mouth she opened wide). Most of Tiamat (burst her belly) lies as the asteroid belt between Jupiter and Mars (the Firmament in Genesis). The much smaller chunk of Tiamat that remains to this day we call Earth. Perhaps this explains the great gash in our planet – we call the Pacific Ocean.

One of the satellites that remained behind after this cosmic event was Kingu (we call it the Moon).

Unbelievable? Then why are the American Military building a vast underground network that stretches from the west to the east coast of the USA? Why are so many telescopes in space turned towards a particular celestial object that may be seen at dawn right next to our sun?

Nibiru is due to come closest to Earth in the year 2045. The elite want to be secure miles underground whilst the population fries.

We rely heavily on scientific proof these days. When scientific fact is not available there is a lazy tendency to return to religious teachings or Darwinism. The major world religions are relatively young and each mimics the other in many ways. Despite the fact that Muslims, Jews and Christians are thought to have vastly differing belief systems it is merely the pomp and ceremony that separates them. The answer to how life was formed on Earth must be found in ancient knowledge (original religion) backed by modern science.

Modern Science explanation

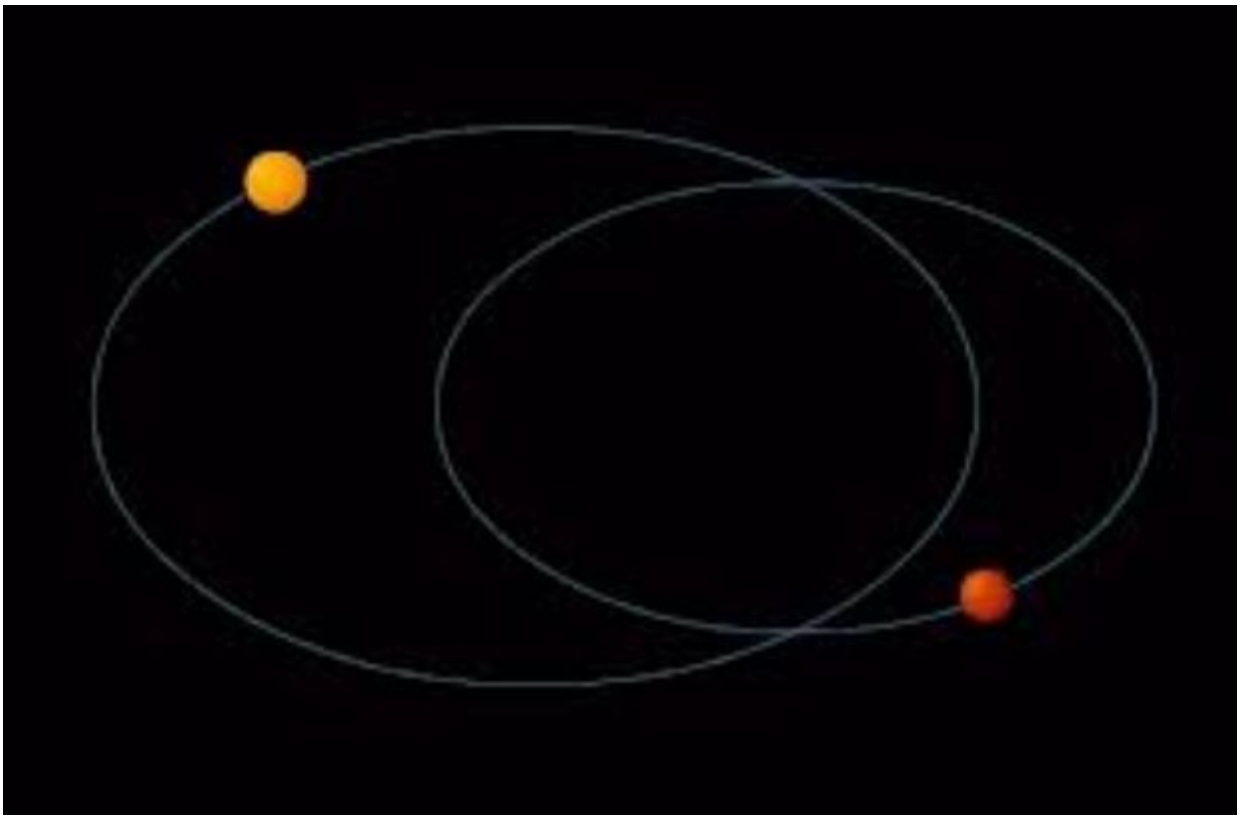
"We want to know where we were born. If we can figure out in what part of the galaxy the sun formed, we can constrain conditions on the early solar system. That could help us understand why we are here," said Ivan Ramirez of The University of Texas.

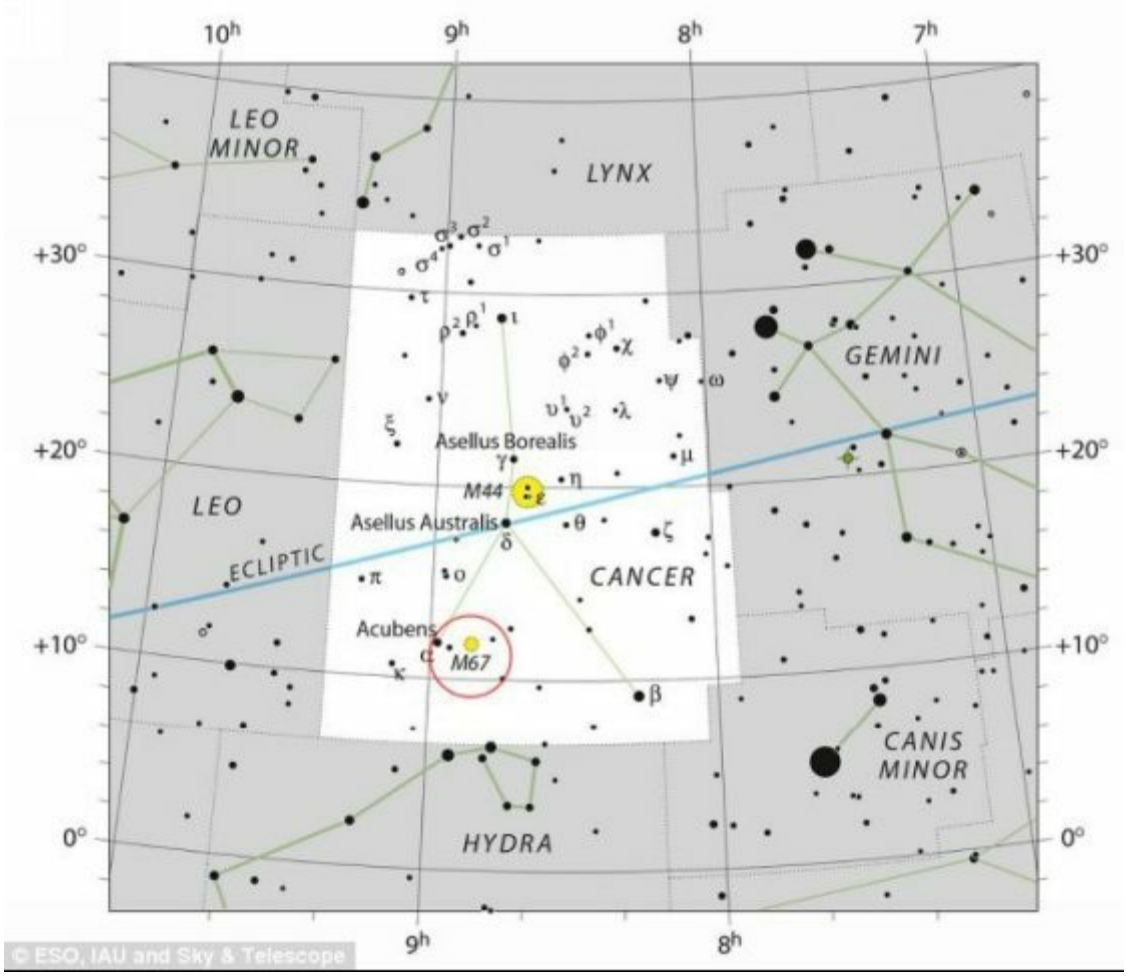
2500 light years from Earth are three planets orbiting a brown dwarf. This star is almost identical to our sun and is approximately the same age. Visit Daily Mail Science page.

One planet is a third of the mass of Jupiter and as it orbits its sun every 7 days it is so hot it appears to glow red with ‘fiery wings’. This symbol is found in ancient archaelogical sites:

Nibiru is thought to return to our solar system every 3600 years. If this brown dwarf and its planetary system are indeed Nibiru then the time period is approximately correct.

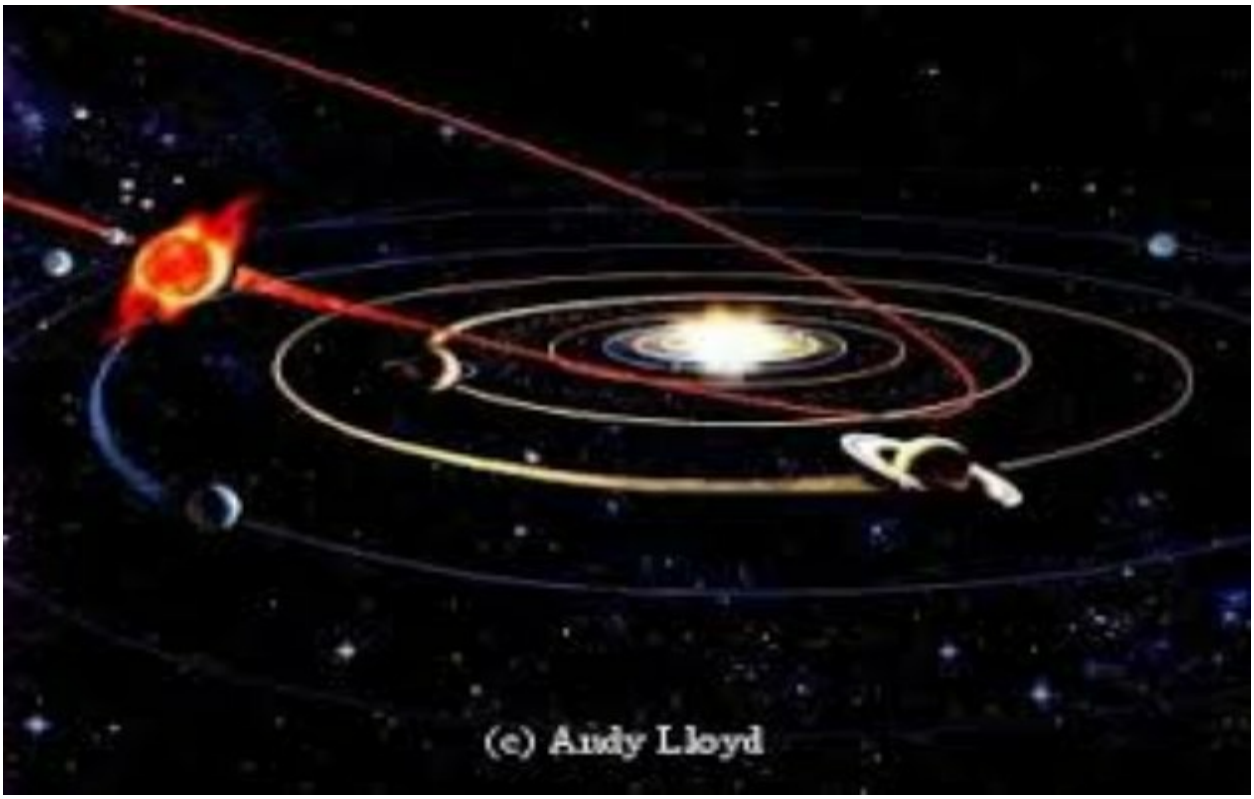
Our sun and Nibiru orbit in a figure of eight around each other, much like a serpent.





Astronomers have used ESO's HARPS planet hunter in Chile, along with other telescopes around the world, to discover three planets orbiting a star in the cluster Messier 67. Pictured below is an artist's impression of a planet with a sun like our own.

This star is the first ever found that was created in the same "birth cluster" as our sun.



The chemical composition of this system is largely silicon, aluminium, magnesium and calcium. The elements and ratios are indeed similar to those found in our planet. Therefore, astronomers believe that one of the planets may be capable of supporting life.

The reason astronomers are so worried about the increased frequency of comets recently is because they know the sun's twin star has returned to our Solar System.

As long ago as 1846 astronomers spotted Uranus behaving erratically. Uranus is unusual in that its spin axis is inclined by 98 degrees compared to its orbital plane around the sun. This is far more pronounced than other planets, such as Jupiter (3 degrees), Earth (23 degrees), or Saturn and Neptune (29 degrees).

Uranus is, in effect, spinning on its side. Pluto has an erratic orbit that takes it around and between Neptune and Uranus.

July 2013, a report stated:
Neptune has a new moon, and its existence is an enigma. The object, known for now as S/2004 N1, is the first Neptunian moon to be found in a decade. Its diminutive size raises questions as to how it survived the chaos thought to have created the giant planet's other moons.

Uranus's highly tilted axis makes it something of an oddball in our solar system. The accepted wisdom is that Uranus was knocked on its side by a single large impact, but new research revises our theories of how Uranus became so tilted and also solves fresh mysteries about the position and orbits of its moons.

By using simulations of planetary formation and collisions, it appears that early in its life Uranus experienced a succession of small punches instead of a single knock-out blow. This research has important ramifications on our theories of giant planet formation.

Most of the planets in our solar system spin on their respective axes "counterclockwise." But Venus and Uranus spin "clockwise" (if viewed from above Earth's North Pole, down onto the plane). Uranus is tipped at 90 degrees, spinning contrary to all of the other planets. Pluto is also tipped over, with an orbit that is mostly outside of the plane used by the other bodies orbiting the sun.

Do we not find these facts strange?

My hypothesis is that our planet is the remnant of a far bigger planet (Tiamat) from a collision perhaps 14 billion years ago. The Pacific Ocean is testament to this as it appears as a yawning hole on one side of Earth where the remainder of Tiamat shouild be.

Microscopic lifeforms were most probably brought to Tiamat/ Earth during the collision with not one but seven heavenly bodies. Now we have a reason for why there are a myriad lifeforms on Earth. One planet is provided with a finite number of elements yet collectively a group of heavenly bodies would certainly contain a much greater variety of elements. Our planet was blessed with seven times the average number of elements granted to one planet This ‘bath’ of chemicals churning in super heated oceans goes a long way to support scientist’s origin of life on Earth. In particular it answers the question “why is there so much diverse life on our planet?”.

How humans were created

In the Enuma Elish Enki says:

“Mix the clay from earth and shape it into the form of a core”.

When the writers of Genesis read the Enuma Elish in the Library of Ashurbanipal they translated the words as:
“The Elohim (Gods) fashioned the Adam (man) from clay then they blew into his nostrils the breath of life”

There is more in the Enuma Elish than in Genesis. It speaks of errors being made whilst attempting to create a new species (they named the Lulu). Early creations had barely any faculties. Many had deformities - without arms or legs, eyes or ears etc

After much trial and error the team of scientists headed by Nintu and Enki finally agreed they were succesful in having created a slave worker to replace the Igigi.

It has been stated by Anthropologists relatively recently that all humans originate from one female who lived in East Africa:

In 1987, a group of geneticists published a surprising study in the journal Nature. The researchers examined the mitochondrial DNA (mtDNA) taken from 147 people across all of today's major racial groups. These researchers found that the lineage of all people alive today falls on one of two branches in humanity's family tree. One of these branches consists of nothing but African lineage, the other contains all other groups, including some African lineage.

Even more impressive, the geneticists concluded that every person on our planet right now can trace his or her lineage back to a single common female ancestor who lived around 200,000 years ago.

Because one entire branch of human lineage is of African origin and the other contains African lineage as well, the study's authors concluded East Africa is the place where this woman lived. The scientists named this common female ancestor Mitochondrial Eve. The figure of 200000 years is approximate.

Enki and Nintu took ‘apes’ from East Africa. They genetically altered them. They increased their intelligence, sense of awareness and added an extra Chakra. The original ‘work’ of Creation were black-skinned Africans. Many were transported to Mesopotamia. The first demigod king (Adam) was coal black. Eve was coal black-skinned. Their children (all 19) were black. Seth was black. Enoch was black and so on. This is why Noah's father was shocked when the baby was born white.

As a footnote Jesus (Yeshua or Esau) was brown. I am fair skinned but am sick of the 'white man' lording it over all other races.

To support the theory that humans were 'created' by gods let us look at the modern science of genetics.

Genetics

The following are all quotes from newspapers:

A parahuman is a human-animal hybrid or chimera. Scientists worldwide are creating bizarre human-animal hybrids that could wreak havoc on society. In the past ten years alone, unforgettable advances in the field of genetic modifications have left researchers and on-lookers stunned.

Researchers at Shanghai Second University have combined humans and rabbits.

Mayo Clinic scientists have already created pigs that have human blood, and a Stanford researcher developed mice whose brains are 1 percent human, with the ultimate goal of creating mice with entirely human brains

It's not actually new in Britain, either: Human/cow embryos have been growing in London for quite some time.

This legalised the creation of a variety of hybrids, including an animal egg fertilised by a human sperm; ‘cybrids’, in which a human nucleus is implanted into an animal cell; and ‘chimeras’, in which human cells are mixed with animal embryos.

So we know it is not only possible to cross humans with animals it is currently being practiced.

Do we believe we are alone in the Universe? No, not any more. Do we think we are currently being visited by aliens and that we have been for millenia? Apparently billions of people not only believe they have witnessed UFOs and aliens of several species.

One species of alien (most likely an android) is in league with the US Military. In Exchange for human ‘guinea pigs’ the greys have provided the military with advanced technology. Not even the President of the United States of America is privy to the secret locations that lie underground in places like Nevada. They are known as DUMBs.

As I have stated many times in this book I have researched and written about so much that is relevant here that should you wish to know the facts in detail please purchase the relevant material.

Currently the human race is undergoing a dramatic change. In the not too distant future we will all be forced to swallow a micro pellet daily and have a microchip stapled into our right forearm. Not only will this identify each individual it shall determine precisely where you are located and precisely what you are thinking. They will create a hybridised race of superbeings once the experimentation is complete. Just like Nintu and Enki did.

We were slaves of the Anunnaki for hundreds of thousands of years. The first experiments on apes in Africa eventually proved a success. By mixing Anunnaki DNA with ape DNA a ‘human’ was created. The gods called us Lulu. We served in gold mines and we dug ditches and we built for them their Ziggurat and we fought for them. They created our religions and made us bow to them as gods. And they do to this day.

There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of Gods came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown.

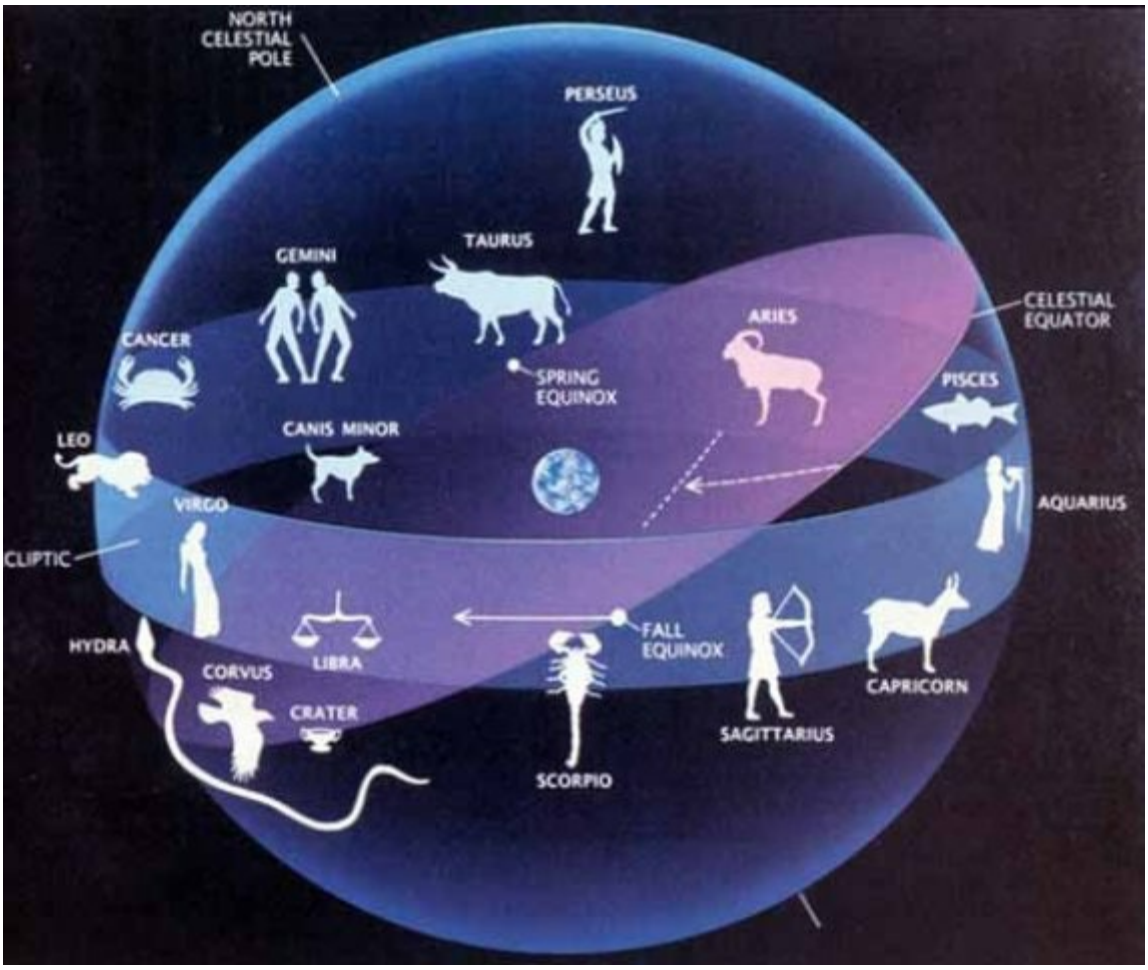
Precession of the Equinoxes

The precession of the equinoxes is caused by the gravitational forces of the sun and the Moon. Think of the Earth as a top spinning on its axis. Our planet wobbles just like the spinning top and the axis alters over time.

The Earth is not a perfect sphere but an oblate spheroid. If the Earth were a perfect sphere, there would be no precession. Equatorial diameter is 43 kilometers larger than the polar diameter. The applied forces of the sun and the Moon are almost perpendicular to the axis of rotation of the Earth.

The Earth is tilted on its axis. Therefore during much of the year the half of this bulge that is closest to the sun is not centred. The other half is off-centre on the opposite side. Since gravity decreases with distance the gravitational pull on the closer half is stronger. This imposes a torque on the Earth owing to the sun influencing one side of the Earth far more than the other. The axis of this torque is roughly perpendicular to the axis of the Earth's rotation. Therefore the axis of rotation precesses.

This average torque is perpendicular to the direction in which the rotation axis is tilted away from the ecliptic pole, so that it does not change the axial tilt itself. The magnitude of the torque from the sun (or the moon) varies with the gravitational object's alignment with the Earth's spin axis and approaches zero when it is orthogonal.



The effect of the sun and the Moon on our planet is called the lunisolar precession.

Cosmologists have proven that not only do planets orbit the sun but our entire solar system gyrates in a spherical manner as it is influenced by gravitational forces from larger heavenly bodies. The sun and its respective planets orbit another Star system which in turn orbits another and so on. In this manner our tiny Earth is dragged around the outskirts of the Milky Way. It is now known that we complete a full orbit of the Milky Way every 25,700 years or so.

The Age of Aquarius is especially important as our planet and all the ‘energy bodies’ that exist on Earth are receiving a ‘supercharge’ of Universal Energy. In short we are leaving the ‘Cosmic Winter’ behind and entering the ‘Cosmic Spring’.

The Maya knew this as did many of our ancestors throughout the world. The Mayan Prediction (incorrectly interpreted) states that in 2012 the planet enters a New Age. Beware listening to New Age Prophecy as much is self-styled aggrandisement. There are perhaps beings from our Galaxy or our future that have arrived in our skies at this auspicious time.

There certainly is testimony from many people to contact with E.B.E.s – many of whom are very similar in appearance to humans. I am asking that you be careful before you believe the many ‘trance state’ messages that are ‘being received’ by self-styled mediums.

The Holographic Principle

All gravity in our universe originates from thin, vibrating strings. Most of the gravity does not exist in our 4-D reality and that is why it appears so weak.

Amazingly these invisible and infinitesimally small thin strings are actually holograms of events that occur in a simpler, flatter cosmos. Are we simply Avatars in some one else's computer game. Remember the Matrix movies?

In fact strings define a two dimensional surface that contains all the information required to define a three dimensional object or life form. For example the security chip of a credit card or the new advertising stunt from BMW's launch of the 7 series:

http://vimeo.com/56002201

Real or not this is the new Opal

Our entire physical universe is encoded as strings. In reality this is the transmission of information from one aspect of the Cosmic Computer to another.

The binary code contains a description of all the galaxies, stars, planets and even their inhabitants. All information is stored in flattened fields then transmitted everywhere in the universe. Every tiny aspect of the hologram contains all the information possessed by the complete hologram. Kinda blows your mind doesn't it.

It is quite conceivable that this information originates from black holes. Our entire physical universe is encoded in strings. For complete details of this little known fact read my series entitled the GLORY OF GOD.

Time is an illusion

What we perceive as the progression of time is akin to watching a DVD. We know that it is possible to pause the DVD, play a fragment over again and even skip forwards. When the DVD ends we are able to play it again or select another DVD. Each 'DVD' may be thought of as a perceived lifetime of events in a single locale. Individually we live inside a 'DVD'.

Seemingly trapped inside a body we feel that time moves relentlessly forwards second by second and that our life shall inevitably lead to death. This is what our religions have taught us. Yet scientists have proven beyond all doubt that time (and space) is not real. Everything occurs in all Universes simultaneously. For the amazing proof and much more fascinating facts read my books:

- Our Universe is an Illusion

- Lies All Damn Lies
- Prison Planet Earth
- Hidden Truth.

It is glaringly obvious that there are extra terrestrial beings far more advanced than humans (think of how many possibly inhabitable planets in the universe there are then add multiple universes). All these advanced species are fully aware of the illusion of time and space. Some of these species are benign, sadly for us many are not. Read my book Time Travel.

Observe the history of our planet. Wherever and whenever stronger (more technologically advanced) races encountered ‘dumb’ natives they slaughtered them and raped their females and their land.

Do you believe that a race thousands if not millions of years more terchnologically advanced than us would resist slaughtering and raping us? Yes we are being slaughtered and raped and what is more upsetting is that we are trained by our Masters to turn on each other and do precisely the same. This process we call war and it has continued for thousands of years.

The Two World Wars accounted for over twenty million deaths. They also accounted for the destruction of the economic infrastructure of those countries involved and left a permanent psychological scar on the human psyche. Those who benefitted from both wars are the same international bankers and financiers who are preparing for the return of Lucifer. I believe Lucifer is Marduk or Molluch, worshipped by the elite at the Bohemian Grove.

The Rockefeller, Rothschild and Bush families grow extremely rich on the proceeds of war. Furthermore those countries involved in senseless wars become permanently indebted to the same families that created the wars.

In recent times the Blair family have joined the elite simply by sanctioning a ‘false flag’ invasion of Iraq. When will we wake up to the atrocities that perpetuate misery and suffering.

Not content with their $ trillions the elite bankers have instigated a whole host of evil plots to decimate the human race and seize all resources throughout the planet. I have written extensively on this subject in The Illuminati, They Sold Their Souls to the Devil and Wake Up World.

Each year over 5 million people throughout the world 'simply go missing'. Many of them are human sacrifices, others used in horrific experiments. This subject is covered in my books:

- the Illuminati
- Greys at Dulce Base
- Where is the US Government hiding its Secrets?
- US Presidents are Aliens
- Open Your Eyes
- Humans are Aliens
- Prison planet Earth

For hundreds of thousands of years an alien race has been worshipped by humans as if they are our Gods. All the Scriptures were written about them. I shall not write further on this subject here as I have provided details in books such as Arrival of the Anunnaki and many others. Suffice it to say that the human race is one great cattle farm or if you prefer sheep fold.

We are encouraged to baaahave like sheep. Reality television shows and social network sites, computer games and trite magazine articles contribute to a dumbing down process that is instigated in formal education. From the moment we enter formal education the brainwashing commences. By the time we leave High School we are completely mind controlled to accept the rule of Authority. What is worse we also accept their version of history.

There was a period of time when humans rebelled against their masters (the masters are always far fewer in number). Stories abound including the slaying of the giant Goliath and St. George killing the ‘dragon’ (reptile). Entire populations rid themselves of their evil rulers.

In the Old Testament and scrolls discovered in 1945 at Nag Hammadi, Egypt these dragons are referenced as Arcons. They enslaved the populous of Africa and the Middle East from ca 450,000 years ago.

After several unsuccessful attempts the leading geneticists (Enki and Nintu – lady of the rib) altered the human genome to

- Omit a large percentage of our DNA
- Provide us with a reptilian (evil) hind brain
- Make humans more amenable to being a slave species

From this point on we were employed in gold and other mines and other occupations once performed by the Igigi (workers from the reptilian species).

Many centuries before the birth of Jesus Christ it became necessary for the reptile rulers to retreat. They left a bloodline of hybrid human/Anunnaki demigods to maintain control.

As the centuries progressed the unsuccessful iron rule had to develop into a more subtle means of control. With the creation of the Illuminati plans for world domination were hatched in the late eighteenth century. Since then elite families such as the Rothschilds and Rockefellers have covertly ushered the world towards the Illuminati's goal of a New World Order. In recent times the Bush, Blair, Cheney, Rumsfeld families and many more including Bill Gates are aiding them to enslave us once and for all. They do not want their flock to escape the fold.

We still don't 'get it'. We are all still 'asleep'. We still follow the herd and fear being different. We will not research or think for ourselves. In fact individualism is severely frowned upon. Think of how many were tortured during the Inquisition, how many crucified and how many burned at the stake. This process is being repeated today by slaying innocent Iraqis, Palestinians and Afghans. Now it is time to cull the American population. I have much more to say on this subject in my other books.

Fortunately for ‘humans in the matrix’ the entire solar system follows a path around the edge of the Milky Way (not just round and round the sun as believed). The process of circumnavigating the Milky Way takes approximately 26000 years. Remember the cyclical nature of a DVD? Our entire experiences are contained on a ‘26000 year long DVD’.

Those who have heralded the Age of Aquarius are indeed correct. Earth is just beginning to reenter the ‘Spring’ of existence. The positioning of Earth and the solar system at this point in ‘time’ (on the DVD) means we are closest to the source program (the black hole in the centre of our Galaxy). Any closer and the entire solar system would succumb to its gravitational pull.

Recently the Queen of England admitted she and her family are reptiles.

In short there is an opportunity at this time to ‘exit the computer game’ should you wish. Those that have ‘sold their souls to the Devil’ in the music, media and political industries and etc have made a committment to ‘replay the DVD’. They have made their choice to serve Lucifer. They believe Lucifer to be stronger than the Great Creator of all Universes.

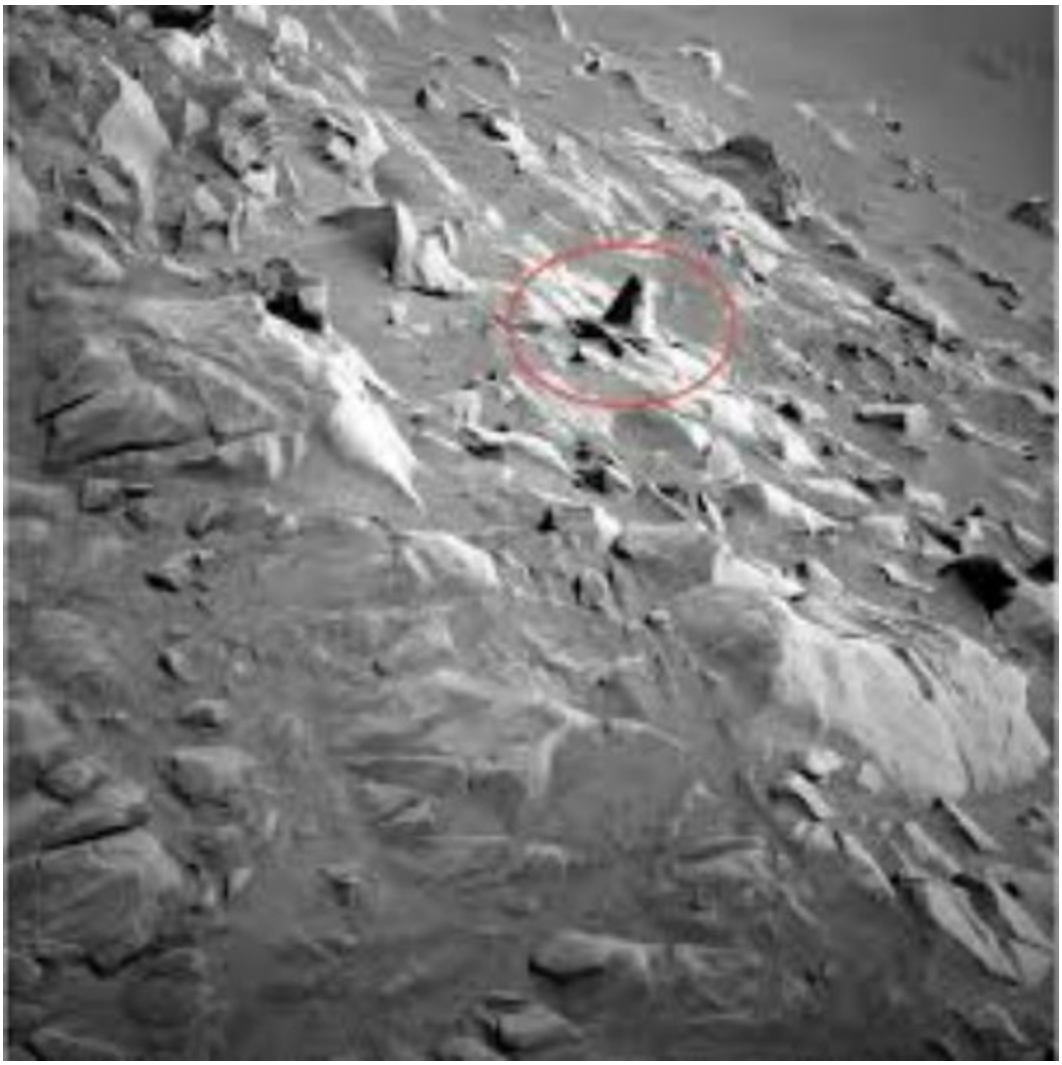
I know this is a huge amount to ingest so please research particle physics, unified field theory, the latest virtual reality and so on. If you wish for a more 'in your face' explanation there is nobody more straightforward than David Icke to detail precisely what was and what is and what is to come. Check him out on you tube.

Our entire universe is a 'two dimensional structure projected onto a cosmological horizon'. Our universe is just one of an infinite number of universes that make up the Mulitverse. A Great DVD Collection if you like. Enlightened Masters through the ages have explained reality to us many times. Currently Deepak Chopra's work is worth investigating.

Remember I stated that NASA has established a colony on Mars?



There are a number of individuals who attest to teleportation to Mars and even into the past.

Despite NASA secrecy an American lawyer has stepped forward to detail his many ‘jumps’.

Time Travelling Children

The American lawyer Andrew Basiago lectures on his childhood experiences where he says he took part in time travel experiments guided by his fatherr. Andrew's father was Raymond F Basiago (Engineer for Curits-Wright Aviation at Woodridge in the 1950s to 1970s).

He was asked to volunteer his son for time travel experiments. Andrew was one of dozens of children placed into a specially prepared capsule to partake in travels through time.

Andrew states with conviction that from the year 1967 he was periodically transported from one locale to another both on and off our planet both backwards and forwards in time.

We already live on Mars

Andrew Basiago claims to have been transported to Mars where he visited a colony the U.S. Military are extablishing there. On the first occasion he was only four years old. Prior to the 'jump' to Mars his father Raymond read from a Manilla file issued by the CIA which purported to be from the year 2008 written by no other than Andrew himself – over 40 years in the future. Later his father would show him a photograph of a Martian.

Teleportation would generally occur from building 68 of the Curtis-Wright Aeronautical Facility in Woodridge New Jersey to Los Alamos, New Mexico. The ‘journey’ would generally take approximately thirty seconds.

On a special occasion in 1970 Andrew was taken to a remote hanger where he witnessed a tear drop shaped space craft and was introduced to the pilot and crew who had flown from Mars. The beings were essentially human but with highly pitched voices. The major difference between Martians and humans is the domed forehead. These ‘spacemen’ wore a red spacesuit emblazoned with a yellow lightning bolt on the chest. At this meeting there was an agreement for the Martians to share their advanced aeronautical technology.

In 1971 on Halloween night Andrew was sick in bed. His father entered Andrew's bedroom then presented Andrew with a paper entitled 'Life on Mars'. The paper was written by Andrew himself in the year 2009.

In 1972 Andrew's family moved to California. From 1980 Andrew studied at UCLA. He was assigned a mentor - Courtney M Hunt - who attempted to recruit Andrew into the CIA.

Andrew 'jumped' through the stargate at the Convention Centre in Santa Fe to the year 2045. He brought back to the radio microwave tower in South West Colorado microfilmed canisters. The film provided details of world events that would enable the Defence Department of the USA in present time to prepare for certain disasters that would occur in the forseeable future.

Andrew states that Donald Rumsfeld was attached to Project Pegasus. He was in a senior position and was one of the officials who wished the children engaged in PP to continue to time travel during adulthood, despite there being danger to the individuals.

DARPA had five reasons for involving American school children in such new, dangerous, and experimental activities.

1. The Department of Defense wanted to test the mental and physical effects of teleportation on children.
2. Project Pegasus needed to use children because the holograms created by the chronovisors would collapse when adults stood within them.
3. The children were tabula rasa and would tend to see things during the time probes that adults would tend to miss.
4. The children were trainees who upon growing up would serve in a covert time-space program under DARPA that would operate in tandem with the overt space program under NASA.
5. The program sponsors found that after moving between time lines adult time travellers often became insane. It was hoped that by working with gifted and talented children from childhood the US government might create an adult cadre of “chrononauts” capable of dealing with the psychological effects of time travel.

Andrew Basiago talks of his father participating in the development of jet engines in an attempt to capture UFOs.

In 1981 Andrew Basiago teleported to Mars

Courtney Hunt drove Andrew to an office building. They rose in an elevator to the fifth floor. Courtney left the elevator and before Andrew could join him the entire elevator teleported to a concrete bunker beneath the surface of Mars. Andrew states that he rose up two flights of stairs to find himself behind the eye socket of a giant statue.

By walking through the eye socket he found himself on the surface of Mars. He describes the atmosphere on Mars as breathable but heavy in the same way as Los Angeles is on a smoggy day. When Andrew turned to face the statue it was that of a giant skull. There were humans and Martians talking together. A hybrid human was shackled near a rudimentary hut. The lower half of the creature resembled a shapeless sleeping bag. There were hands but no legs.

In the hut lived a man. This person had been on Mars for so long he had become mentally deranged. Upon the return to the skull statue Andrew and his handler spotted a Martian predator that he claimed almost killed him as he was diving to the safety of the eye socket of the skull. Since this incident Andrew claims humans have been eaten by carniverous predators. For this reason the colony on Mars is now based underground.

New age lecturer David Willcock agrees with Andrew that there are approximately 60000 people now living underground on Mars. Both Andrew and David confirm that Martians and humans have a common ancestry. Andrew has published papers on his visits to Mars.

William Brett Stillings testifies to the validity of Andrew's claims that there is life on Mars. They both agree that the CIA have deliberately leaked information to Basiago so that he will go public with this amazing information. The CIA actually want to prepare people of our planet to become accustomed to this incredible information.

Bernie Mendez was present during negotiations with E.T.s who consider humans to be 'contaminated'. They have warned us not to entertain the thought of occupying the moon or other planets.

What about Obama being one of the time travelling children?

Basiago reveals that President Barack Obama (who was known to him as Barry Soetoro at the time) was his classmate in a Mars training program held at the College of the Siskiyous in 1980.

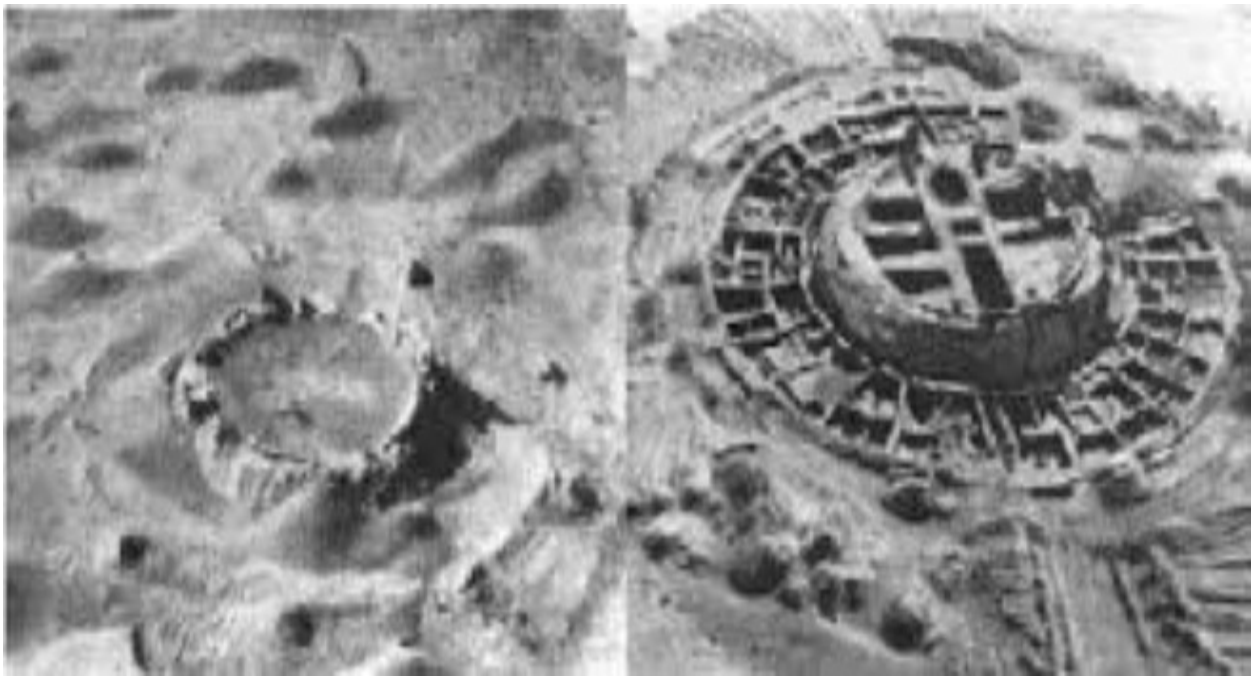
Other classmates were Regina E. Dugan who Obama had appointed Director of Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency (DARPA) in 2009, William

C. McCool who was piloting the Space Shuttle Columbia when it disintegrated and William Brett Stillings. Stillings says he also travelled to Mars and saw Obama on the planet. Stillings and Basiago say that the class was taught by Major Ed Dames who was a Captain at that time.

According to Mr. Basiago and Mr. Stillings, in Summer 1980 they attended a three-week factual seminar about Mars to prepare them for trips. Theywere later taken to Mars via teleportation. The course was taught by remote viewing Pioneer Major Ed Dames, who was then serving as a scientific and technical intelligence officer for the U.S. Army. It was held at the College of the Siskiyous, a small college near Mt. Shasta in California.

They state that ten teenagers were enrolled in the Mars training program. In addition to Basiago and Stillings, two of the eight other teenagers in Major Dames' class that they can identify were Barack Obama, who was then using the name "Barry Soetoro," and Regina Dugan. Mr. Obama appointed Dugan as the 19th director and first female director of the Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency (DARPA) in 2009.

As many as seven parents of the ten students, all with ties to the CIA, audited the class. They included Raymond F. Basiago, an engineer for The Ralph M Parsons Co. He was the chief technical liaison between Parsons and the CIA on Tesla-based teleportation; Thomas Stillings, an operations analyst for the Lockheed Corporation who had served with the Office of Naval Intelligence; and Mr. Obama's mother, Stanley Ann Dunham, who carried out assignments for the CIA in Kenya and Indonesia.



From 1981 to 1983, the young attendees then went on to teleport to Mars via a "jump room" located in a building occupied by Hughes Aircraft at 999 N. Sepulveda Boulevard in El Segundo, California, adjacent to the Los Angeles International Airport (LAX). Quote from:

http://exopolitics.blogs.com/exopolitics/2011/11/mars-visitors-basiago-and-stillings-confirm-barack-obama-traveled-to-mars-1.html

Basiago, Obama, Stillings, and Dugan went to Mars at a time when the U.S. presence on Mars was only just beginning but many had already gone.

Mr. Basiago states that in the early 1980's, when they went, the U.S. facilities on Mars were rudimentary and resembled the construction phase of a rural mining project. While there was some infrastructure supporting the jump rooms on Mars, there were no base-like buildings like the U.S. base on Mars first revealed publicly by Command Sergeant Major Robert Dean at the European Exopolitics Summit in Barcelona, Spain in 2009.

The primitive conditions that they encountered on Mars might explain the high level of danger involved. Mr. Basiago and Mr. Stillings agree that Major Dames stated during their training class at The College of the Siskiyous in 1980: "Of the 97,000 individuals that we have thus far sent to Mars, only 7,000 have survived there after five years."

In light of these risks and prior to going to Mars Mr. Basiago received additional training from Mr. Hunt. Hunt took Andrew to the Lockheed facility in Burbank, California for training in how to avoid predators living on the surface of Mars.

Hunt (CIA officer) showed Mr. Basiago how to operate the respiration device that he would wear only during his first jump to Mars in July 1981. This provided him with a weapon to protect himself on Mars.

When they first teleported to Mars in Summer 1981 they confronted the situation that Major Dames had covered at length during the class the previous summer – one of their principal concerns on Mars would be to avoid being devoured by one of the predator species on the Martian surface.

The Mars program was launched, Basiago and Stillings were told, to establish a defense regime protecting the Earth from threats from space and, by sending civilians, to establish a legal basis for the U.S. to assert a claim of territorial sovereignty over Mars. In furtherance of these goals and the expectation that human beings from Earth would begin visiting Mars in greater numbers, their mission was to acclimate Martian humanoids and animals to their presence or, as Major Dames stated during their training near Mt. Shasta in 1980: "Simply put, your task is to be seen and not eaten."

Martian Colonies

In July 1988, the Russians launched two unmanned satellite probes - Phobos 1 and Phobos 2. Their destination was Mars. The probes were named after the mysterious moon of Mars and in fact it was the intention of the Russians to investigate this most mysterious of satellites.

Somehow Phobos 1 disappeared sometime before reaching its proposed destination.

Phobos 2 was also ultimately lost in the most intriguing circumstances, but not before it had beamed back certain images and information from the planet Mars itself.

In January 1989 Phobos 2 began to orbit Mars. The next stage was to 'piggyback' on the Martian orbit of Phobos and begin to examine the moon itself. Within a matter of weeks the probe was expected to land on Phobos and begin taking samples and perform experiments much as our moon's probes had several years earlier.

On 28th March 1989 as the probe was being aligned with Phobos the Soviet mission control center suddenly declared they had communication "problems" with the probe.
Tass (official Soviet news agency) reported:

"Phobos 2 had failed to communicate with Earth as scheduled after completing an operation yesterday around the Martian moon Phobos. Scientists at mission control have been unable to establish stable radio contact."

What caused Phobos 2 spacecraft to break contact? One unplanned problem had led to the irretrievable loss of Phobos 1 but two errors during the same mission.

Some 'quite remarkable objects' were transmitted to Earth from Phobos 2 just before transmission ceased. No official account of just what these objects were has ever been released.

A report taken from New Scientist of 8 April 1989, described the following:

"The features are either on the Martian surface or in the lower atmosphere. The features are between 20 and 25 kilometers wide and do not resemble any known geological formation. They are spindle - shaped and proving to be intriguing and puzzling."

An unusual photo of a thin shadow across Mars (below left) was shown on the Russian television segment.

Shown as hovering some way above the surface of Mars is the dark cigar shape below. It was at that time described as a "thin ellipse"

It was certainly different from the shadow of Phobos recorded eighteen years earlier by Mariner 9. The latter cast a shadow that was a rounded ellipse.

Dr. Becklake described it as "something that is between the spacecraft and Mars, because we can see the Martian surface below it," and stressed that the object was seen by both the optical and the infrared (heat seeking) cameras.

Dr. Becklake explained that it was taken as the spacecraft was aligning itself with Phobos.

"As the last picture was halfway through," he said, "they [Soviets] saw something that should not be there."

"One image appears to include an odd-shaped object between the spacecraft and Mars."

This "highly secret" photo was later presented to the press by Colonel Dr. Marina Popovich (Russian astronaut and pilot).

She believed this to be a photo of an alien mother ship in our solar system".

This ‘spaceship’ was estimated to be 20km long, 1.5km in diameter The photograph above taken on 25 March 1989 was the last photo ever transmitted back to Earth from Phobos 2.

It is believed to be a miles long mothership parked next to or on the Martian moon Phobos.
The shadow - spindle- or cigar shaped - is inconsistent with any possible shadow cast by the moon Phobos, which is an irregular potato shape.

INFRARED PHOTOS OF AN UNDERGROUND CITY

Canadian TV released an infrared scan radiometer image of the Martian surface that depicted clearly defined rectangular areas. A latticework of perfectly straight channels connects these rectangular areas, reminiscent of blocks in an American street plan.

According to Dr. John Becklake of the London Science Museum,
"The city-like pattern is 60 kilometers wide and could be easily be mistaken for an aerial view of Los Angeles."

The final transmission of Phobos 2 was shown throughout Europe and Canada yet aroused an insignificant degree of curiosity as it was ‘aired’ on less popular programs.

Two unnatural anomalies were revealed from the Phobos 2 transmissions. The first was a network of straight lines at the Martian equator (some lines were short, some long and thin and several rectangular shapes "embossed" in the Martian surface). This totally artificial pattern ranged over six hundred square kilometers (more than two hundred thirty square miles).

The "anomaly" appeared to be far from a natural phenomenon.

The television clip was accompanied by a live comment by Dr. John Becklake of England's Science Museum.

Becklake described the phenomenon as very puzzling, because the pattern seen on the surface of Mars was photographed not with the spacecraft's optical camera but with its infrared camera. This camera takes pictures of objects using the heat they radiate, not by the play of light and shadow on them.

In other words, the pattern of parallel lines and rectangles covering an area of almost two hundred fifty square miles was a source of heat radiation.

It is highly unlikely that a natural source of heat radiation (a geyser or a concentration of radioactive minerals under the surface, for example) would create such a perfect geometric pattern. When viewed over and over again, the pattern definitely looks artificial; but what it was, the scientist said, "I certainly don't know."

Since no coordinates for the precise location of this "anomalous feature" have been released publicly, it is impossible to judge its relationship to another puzzling feature on the surface of Mars that can be seen in Mariner 9 frame 4209-75 (image below).

It is also located in the equatorial area (at longitude 186 4) and has been described as "unusual indentations with radial arms protruding from a central hub" caused (according to NASA scientists) by the melting and collapse of permafrost layers.

The design of the features, bringing to mind the structure of a modern airport with a circular hub from which the long structures housing the airplane gates radiate, can be better visualized when the photograph is reversed.

We have managed to track down the final picture taken by Phobos 2 before it was "shot out of orbit" (see above). One report indicated that it was presented at a closed meeting with US and British officials.

In the 19th October, 1989 issue of 'Nature', Soviet scientists published a series of technical reports on the experiments Phobos 2 did manage to conduct: of the thirty seven pages, a mere paragraph dealt with the loss of the spacecraft.

The report confirms that the spacecraft was spinning, either because of a computer malfunction or because Phobos 2 was "impacted" by an unknown object.

CHAIN CRATERS OF PHOBOS

In an interesting article in the January 1977 issue of 'Astronomy', entitled "Chain Craters of Phobos", the anonymous author discusses the strange grooves and craters of Phobos:

"Viking has discovered another mystery in the most unexpected place - one of the two small Martian moons".

Mariner 9's mapping of Phobos (12x14x17 miles or 20x23x28 kilometers) and Deimos (6x7x10 miles, or 10x12x16 kilometers) showed many craters. This left most investigators with the impression that they were merely rocky chunks that bore the scars of meteorite impacts.

There was a puzzling feature on Phobos.

At the limit of resolution are some small crater pits that seem to align in one or two chains. This is unusual as crater chains on the moon are traditionally explained as volcanic pits - small eruption sites along fracture lines.

Apparently Phobos is too small to generate heat and conventional volcanic activity.

"Vikings high resolution photos have revealed that the crater chains are real and part of an extensive system of parallel grooves, a few hundred yards wide (shown in Viking orbiter photo number 39B84)".

There may be a tendency for the grooves to lie parallel to the direction of the satellites orbital motion, although there appears to be several swarms with somewhat different orientations.

Scientists are at a loss to explain them.

Theories being discussed include:

- grooves left by much smaller satellite debris also orbiting Mars (though the grooves seem to follow contours of Phobos' surface too closely for this to be tenable)
- fractures radiating from an impact crater not yet recognized (perhaps on the side of Phobos still poorly photographed)
- fractures created in the body of the Martian satellite when it was part of a hypothetical larger body. It spawned both Martian moons, perhaps during a catastrophic impact

In another effort to photograph Mars and its moons, the NASA 'Mars Observer' was launched from Cape Canaveral Air Force Base in Florida in late 1992, on a 337 day voyage to Mars.

The Most Amazing Secret of All Time

We are a warrior-like species bred to be like and to serve a reptilian emotionless race known as the Anunnaki. For those who have read all my previous books this is the piece de resistance, the icing on the cake. Unfortunately for those who have not you may need to take at face value what I shall print from here until the end of this book.

Carlos Castenada was a famous Peruvian-American anthropologist with his PhD from UCLA. Whilst serving his shaman apprenticeship under the tutelage of Don Juan Matus in the Yucatan he wrote prolifically. To date he is the author of twelve books, all relating to his experiences with Don Juan, Yaqui Indian. Many of his personal experiences were ‘out of the body’, created by the ingestion of psychotropic plants such as peyote.

The worldview ascribed to Don Juan can be understood in terms of virtual reality and holograms. "Anatomy" of the human holograph, is the key to understanding terms he uses like the "assembly point" (lens), the "luminous egg" (holographic field), filaments (frequencies), the "intent", the "will", etc. The "assemblage point", mentioned in the teachings, acts as a "decodifier" (tuner, reading lens) which fixes in a certain position for most people at the age of 7, thus "decodifying" only a certain "band" of filaments (frequencies, datalines).

As a consequence of this fixation, the "lens" decodifies only the limited reality we call "our universe". If the "assemblage point" moves it decodifies different frequencies (universes).

Just as a TV receiver changes "channels" (frequencies), the reposition of the "assemblage point" will "read" other band frequencies we call universes. Don Juan's art of "deaming" is allegedly the art of mastering the decodifier.

When the moon (energetic construct in the Metaphysical Universe) was caused to orbit the Earth it was designed to create a distortion in the information construct. This is the waveform information based in the black hole at the centre of our Galaxy.

As the moon was first positioned it caused the Earth to turn upside down so that the magnetic poles were reversed.

Coincidentally during a solar eclipse the moon is the perfect size to just cover the sun. This eerie fact was used to frighten our ancestors who were inforned that if they did not obey their masters the sun would be lost to them forever.

Quote from Don Juan Matus:

We have a predator that came from the depths of the Cosmos. It took over the rule of our lives. Humans are its prisoners. The predator is overlord and master. It has rendered us docile and made us feel helpless. If we wish to act independently it demands we don't. Indeed we are classified as the Eternal Prisoners. These predators cooped us up like chickens and we are food to them.

They squeeze us mercilessly because we are their sustenance. They feed off our fear, our sadness, our depression, our hopelessness. They bred with us. Those that are descendents of the hybrids literally drink our blood and eat our quaking hearts. They especially love menstrual blood and the rich endocrine-soaked blood of prepubescent children.

We are humaneros and we are ‘oven ready’. Think for a moment then explain to me the contradictions between man the engineer and the stupidity of his systems of belief.

Everywhere we perceive contradictory behaviour. Fighting for peace, acquiescence to laws that further enslave the populous and wars between believers in the same deity.

The Sorceror will tell you the predators have instilled in us our religious belief systems, fear of death and hatred for anything that does not conform. We have constantly battled within and without, always blindly accepting that authority knows best no matter what form it takes.

To perpetuate our dreams of success and failure they gave us greed, covetousness and cowardice. It is the predators who make us complacent, routinary and egomaniacal.

In order to maintain our obedience, meekness and weaknesses these predators are constantly engaged in a stupendous and horrendous manoeuvre. Stupendous from the point of view of a fighting strategist and horrendous from the point of view of those that constantly suffer.

By copulating with humans and genetically altering us they gave us their reptilian brain. The predator's mind is baroque, morose and contradictory, filled with the fear of being discovered anytime soon.

We humans operate within the Hive Reptilian Collective Mind.

Hybrid Anunnaki/humans feed off blood sacrifices, fear, human suffering, depression and hopelessness. They are possessed by a Reptile race that exists in a lower dimension. They are desperate to rise to our dimension, populate planet Earth and rape it of all its resources.

If the US military complex has not already been possessed by this evil alien race then there is a pressing need to colonize other planets especially Mars.

Despite the terrible atrocities committed to this planet and its inhabitants hundreds of thousands of years ago there is still breathable air on Mars and with ingenuity we shall find any remaining natural resources.

The Industrial military complex is at least forty years ahead in technology. They have developed stargates and are perfecting interstellar travel. Their scientists even believe they are able to prolong human life by introducing our brain into a planetary form of the internet. Shortly afterwards our brains will be inserted into a resilient cyborg body, hundreds of times stronger than the human body. The unfortunate side effect of this amazing leap forward is that we will be totally under computer control. No feelings or emotions, no free will or thought.

Don Juan is not alone in his thinking. We were warned by the Sumerians, Akkadians and Assyrians. We were warned by the ancient Chinese, native Americans (North and South) and Polynesians. We were warned by all ancient civilisations as they were well aware of their impending imprisonment. In the earlier times there were victories over the reptilian race (celebrated by the Chinese annually and such ‘legends’ as that of St George).

The reptilian brain exhibits cold-bloodied behaviour. By that I mean that there are no emotions whatsoever. This is no better exhibited than in our Governments (who are related to or serve the bloodline elite – Illuminati families) who happily despatch young people to their deaths in faraway countries.

Reptilians have a strict need to control. Despite a hive mentality there is a hierarchy that is topped by descendents of Anu. It is difficult for the ‘giants that walked the Earth’ to remain for lengthy periods on our planet so they control their food supply through the tiny minority that we have placed in control. Among these are the Bushes, Rockefellers and Rothschilds, the Blairs and Clintons and of course the famous five Kissinger, Cheney, Rumsfeld, Wolfowitz and Greenspan.

The reptilian has such a desperate need for survival that even when it apparently possesses more than it can spend, eat or otherwise use in a hundred lifetimes it still desperately acquires more. Consider the reptiles we know to exist on our planet. They are cold-bloodied, always flicking their head from side to side sensing for danger and the self-survival mechanism is predominant. Consequently there is a need to appear bigger, more powerful than its adversaries and if possible invulnerable. Hence the ancient fables that a god could never die.

We are able to overcome this tyranny and if you are able to understand what I have written here and wish for more information please read my other books.

David Icke has a massive following that swells daily. I must admit I was not a fan of his teachings way back in the 90s. Having approached his teachings with an open mind since I find myself in total harmony with his system of truth.

Once we were perfect beings that were fully aware that we had entered a fantastic ‘computer game’. We would revel in the game for thousands of years then as and when we wished we would ‘pull the plug’ and return to the Ocean of Consciousness.

The Golden Age is now almost mythological. Tales of blue gods are now only to be found in the Vedas. These gods rode above the clouds in huge Vimanas (flying fortresses) to cities that floated high in the stratosphere. The gods all had Avatars – does that expression mean anything to you? Of course, it is used in computer generated real time gaming and there is a movie of that very name.

Saturn

Not only great rings but great mystery surrounds the enormous planet we call Saturn. I have detailed some of these mysteries in my book Mars Colony and Moon bases.

The trilogy Lord of the Rings written by J R R Tolkien deliberately highlighted the evil god Satan, Saturn or Sauron. He was literally lord of the rings (of Saturn). Tolkien was a professor and specialised in ancient English. He insisted his three books were only partly allegorical, that much that featured did in fact occur thousands of years ago. Perhaps our historians don't quite have a fix on the real past.

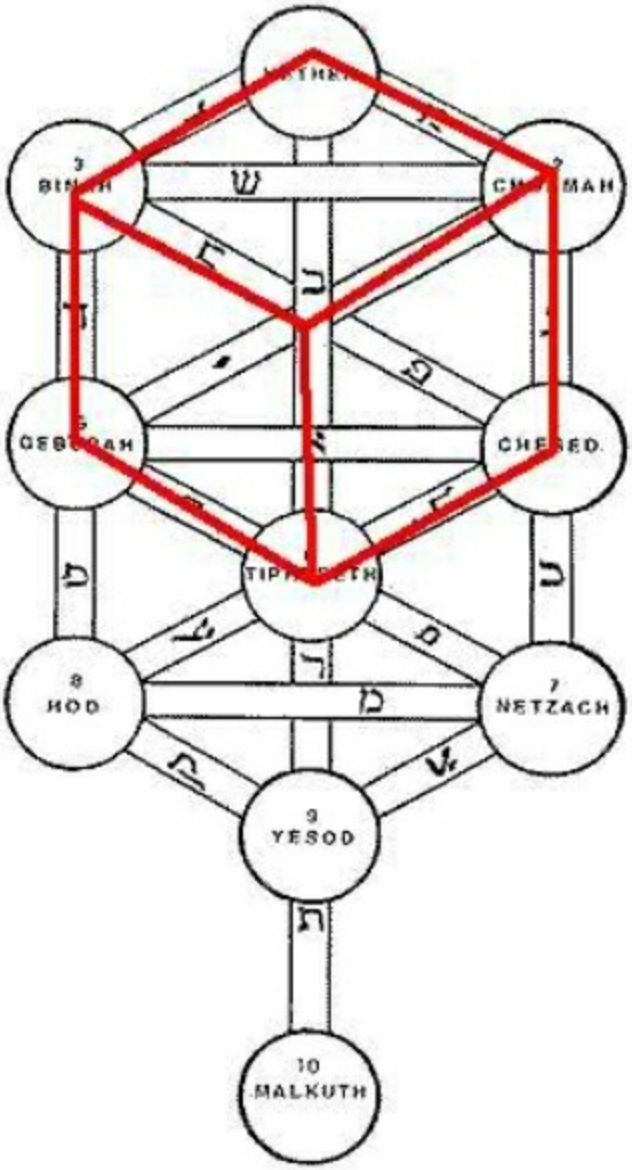
Pythagoras is famous for the derivation of the Tetractys (tetrad). It is known as the Kabbalah, comprising ten circles and their connections. In simple terms there are two paths to enlightenment. Many performers are initiates of the Kaballah, including Madonna.

The ten Sephirots correspond to the ten circles of the Tetractys. Join the centers of 7 of these 10 circles to form a cube. See diagram below.

The remaining circles represent the material, three dimensional world.



The black cube is symbolic of Saturn. Saturn was once thought to shine in the night sky, essentially as a second sun. It is known as the black sun. There is evidence that the planets were once in entirely different orbits, with Venus lying between Mars and Jupiter. This forms the basis of another treatise.

NASA Voyager and Cassini missions (some 30 years apart) provided some extremely interesting data on the poles of the planet Saturn.

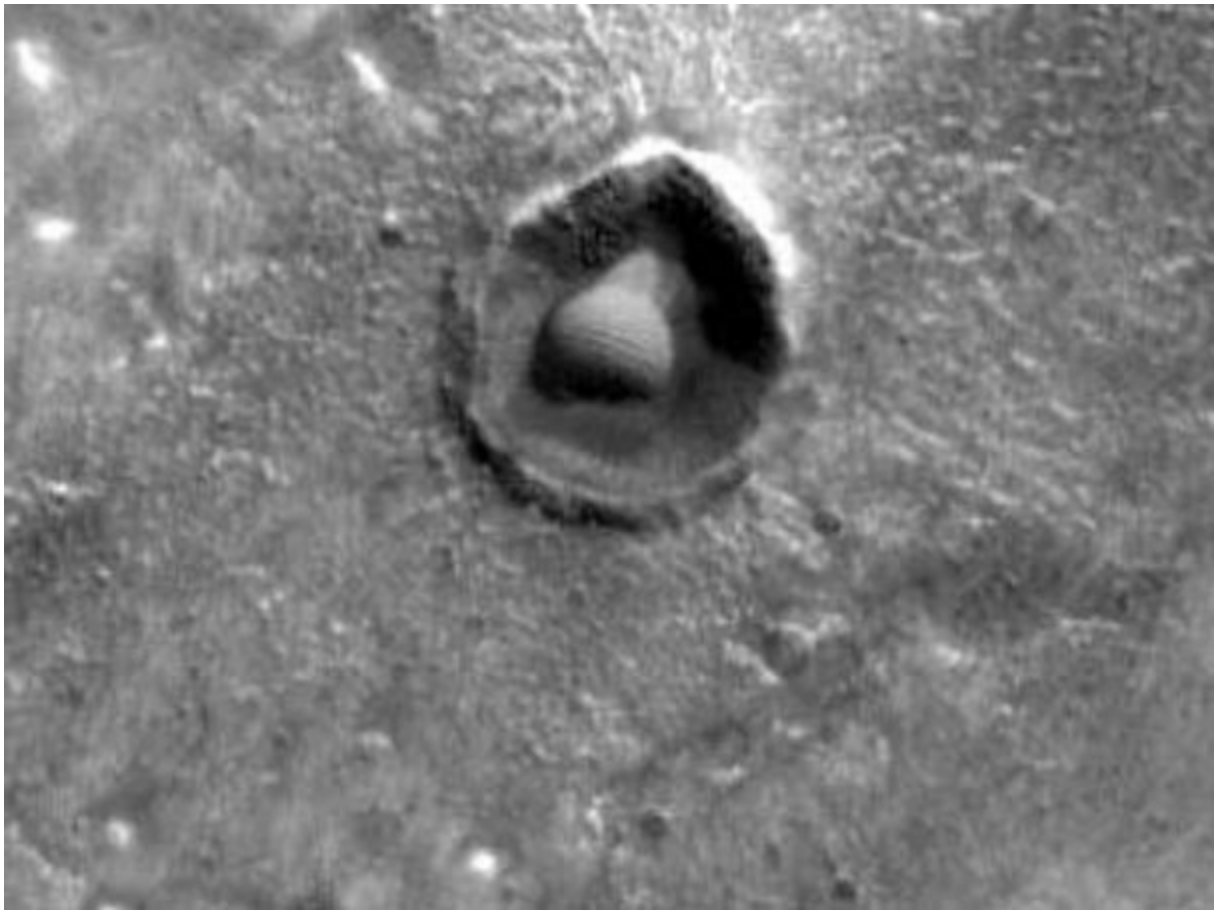
South pole of Saturn looks like an eye

The eye on the dollar bill is representative of the eye of the South pole of Saturn. Latterly those awake in the world have been pondering its occult meaning. Is it the eye of Horus or the all-seeing Eye of Satan (Saturn, Sauron)?

Many books have been written on the subjects of numerology and cosmic astronomy. There are secrets hidden in the Tarot and the multitudinous ancient stone monuments so prolific on planet Earth. It is written that not only one but a minimum of thirteen alien species have not only visited our planet but many live among us. Open your eyes, question everything anew because our masters are terrified that one day we will rediscover the Truth.



Our moon and many others in the solar system is a Trojan Horse introduced into the Cosmic Computer Program. Attempts to eradicate these Trojans using ‘Antivirus Programs’ have so far failed. Our very ‘reality’ is currently being generated by the Trojans and not by the Original Cosmic Program. The Trojans are interfering with the Master Game Plan. Our physical bodies (charged with electromagnetic energy) and especially our minds are constantly bombarded with a reality that is not real. Please watch the Matrix series again and a wonderful film of John Carpenter’s entitled They Live.

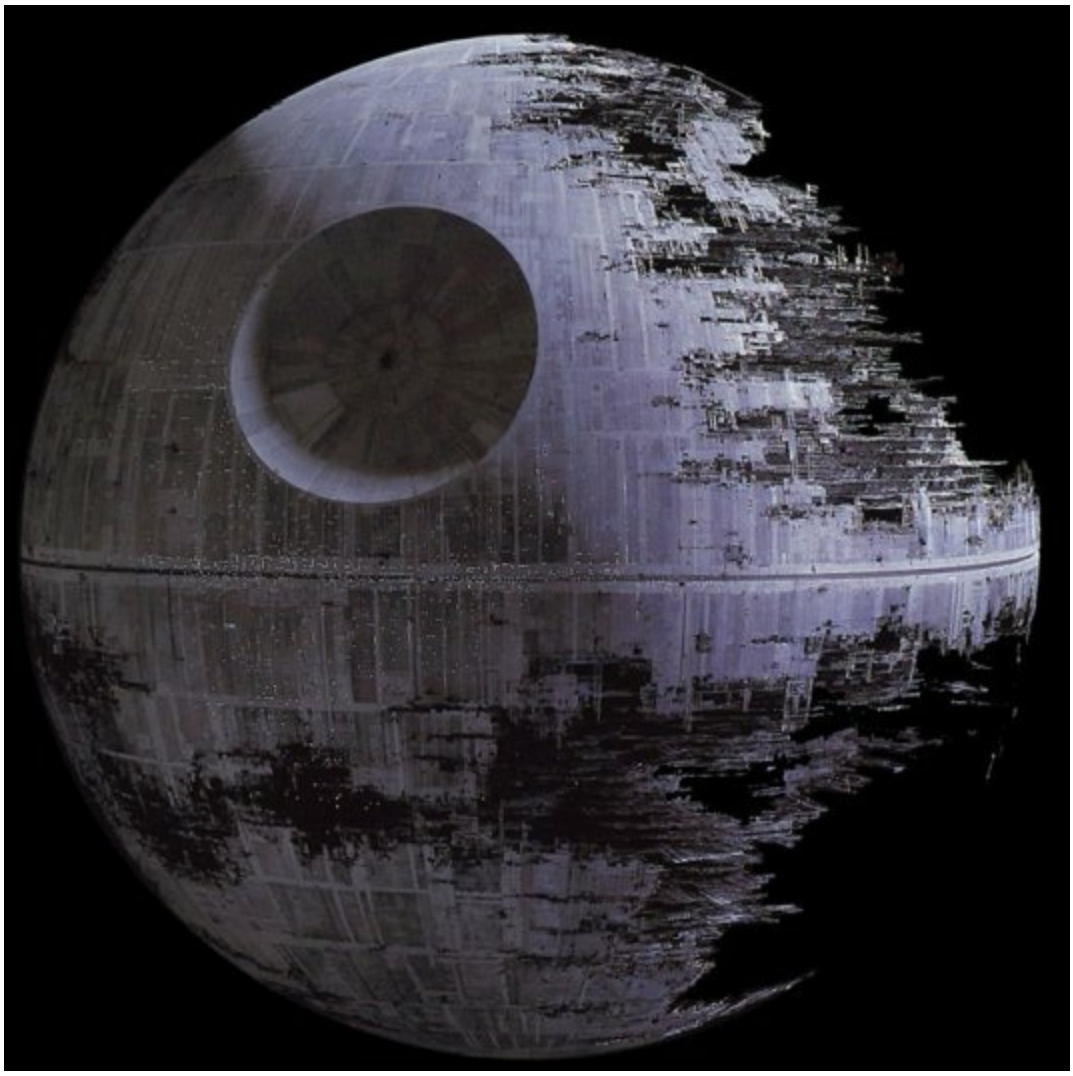
So perhaps you may begin to understand that all things are possible, all scenarios are ‘real’ and we are able to experience anything that our imagination permits. We are in fact drops of ‘water’ in the Infinite Ocean of Consciousness yet we may undertake any adventure in any environs we wish. Think it and it becomes ‘reality’, will it and it manifests. Please do not believe me but instead research string theory, quantum mechanics and especially the Unified Field Theory for yourself. Expand your mind and simultaneously expand your consciousness. It is time for the Sleeping Beauty to wake up.

One last thought before I go. Remember the Death Star in the Star Wars movies?



The photograph below is Saturn's moon Mimas.

The capabilities of the Hadron Collider at CERN suggest that it is a dimension distortion facility.

The illuminati elite are Luciferian worshippers. Lucifer was banished by God to a lower realm. These crazies are attempting to bring the physical manifestation of Lucifer into our dimension, using the LHC and a portal centred on the North pole of Saturn.

The LHC has opened a gateway to Hell. This must occur for the elite's NWO Anti-Christ and Beast to occupy our dimension.

Gary Margrove has written over 100 books. For full knowledge of the truth of human history, what will happen to us in future read them all. Also available a compendium entitled Arrival of the Anunnaki by Gary G Margrove. This treatise provides you with a true account of the creation of the human race.

Since 2009 Nibiru and its orbiting planets has been seen in the Southern Hemisphere, rising in conjunction with our own sun. More recently observers in the northern hemisphere have reported a strange occurrence – two suns and two dawns.
